AYUDHA POOJA- 2025

Ayudha Pooja was celebrated in the Bon Secours College of Education on 30th September, 2025 to signify the victory of knowledge over ignorance. On this special day, all the laboratories, classes and all the offices were beautifully decorated with glazing papers and colorful rangoli designs, symbolizing the festive spirit.

The Rev. Sr. Jessi Chandra, superior, Bon Secours college community led the prayer. The management members, professors, staff members, and pre-service teachers were graciously invited to attend the prayer at college premises. All the educational materials, working tools, and other equipments being venerated and it was commenced with the worship of God. The fragrance of fresh flowers and the aroma of burning camphor filled the surroundings with peace and positivity. The Ayudha Pooja started with a graceful group song, followed by a heartfelt prayer. Finally, Dr. K. A. Antonysamy, Principal, BSCE, shared a few inspiring words on the significance of Ayudha Pooja. The program concluded at 11:00 a.m., and sacred food was distributed to all.
