Farewell Report: Batch of 2023-2025

On June 16th, 2025, Bon Secours College of Education's Conference Hall buzzed with warmth and emotion as the 1st-year pre-service teachers orchestrated a heartfelt farewell for the outgoing batch. The event was a beautiful tribute, celebrating the journey and achievements of the graduating students.

Event Highlights

The farewell commenced with a unique and personal touch: badge distribution with individual names, warmly welcoming each final year student. The event was formally inaugurated by opening a flex, symbolizing the start of the memorable morning.

The welcome address was delivered by S.Priyadharshini, a First-year pre-service teacher, who set a warm and inviting tone. Followed by, the Presidential address given by Dr K.A.Antonyamy, Principal Bon Secours College of Education resonated with inspiring words, guiding and encouraging the outgoing batch.

The cultural program was a vibrant display of talent and affection. A special song, created and sung by the first-year pre-service teachers, beautifully captured the essence of the department and the bond shared. A poignant video showcased the journey of the second-year students, reflecting on their growth and experiences at the college. The dance performances added an energetic flair, making the atmosphere joyful and celebratory. Lunch was provided by the management, ensuring everyone enjoyed the celebratory meal.

A highlight of the evening was the gift distribution, where each final year student received an individual photo frame as a memento of their time at Bon Secours. The Administrator, Rev Sister Sandanamy Bon Secours College of Education shared her heartfelt words of love and encouragement, imparting blessings to the final year pre-service teachers.

The Principal of Bon Secours College of Education expressed immense appreciation to the First-year pre-service teachers, acknowledging their tremendous efforts in organizing such a memorable event with a standing ovation. As a token of their gratitude, the second-year pre-service teachers presented gifts to the Principal, Administrator, professors, and staff members, expressing their heartfelt thanks for the guidance and support.

A feedback session added an interactive and insightful dimension to the event, allowing for shared reflections and making the gathering even more memorable. The second-year pre-service teachers successfully implemented an intercom facility, providing an effective communication link between all classrooms in the college. The initiative was coordinated by Dr. S. Victoria. Assistant Professor in Physical science.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Ms.G.Mohanambal , a second-year pre-service teacher, bringing the emotional and celebratory event to a graceful close.
