Orientation programme on Internship Teaching Practice

Bon Secours College of Education conducted a one-day orientation programme on Internship teaching practice on 2nd September 2025 for the second-year pre-service teachers. This programme is designed with clear, purposeful objectives to ensure a smooth transition from theory to practice.

Through structured sessions, student-teachers gain a comprehensive understanding of their roles and institutional expectations, and are equipped with the tools to thrive in real classroom environments. An alumna of the institution, Ms. D. Ezhilarasi, M.Sc (CS), B.Ed., PGT in Kamala Subramaniyam CBSE school, gave a special lecture. And she was honoured and greeted by the Principal, Dr. K.A. Antony Samy.

This initial guidance reduces uncertainty and sets a solid foundation for the pre-service teachers' professional growth. And it also helps them to adapt more quickly and navigate the school setting with ease. Moreover, this programme provides valuable training on effective teaching methodologies, classroom management techniques, and lesson planning strategies. This session equips the second-year Pre-Service Teachers with the practical skills necessary to deliver engaging, well-structured lessons.

Beyond teaching skills, the orientation also emphasises professional conduct, communication, and ethical considerations, fostering a sense of professionalism essential for educators. Overall, this programme is a vital step in ensuring that Pre-Service Teachers are well-prepared, confident, and equipped to succeed in their teaching practice. This programme was co-ordinated by Mrs.S.Devi, Asst.Prof in English Education.
