CHRISTMAS DAY CELEBRATION REPORT

Date: 22.12.2025 – Community Outreach Programme
23.12.2025 – College Christmas Celebration

Theme: sharing of love

Objective: This programme was organized to spread love and share gifts as part of the Christmas celebration with elderly people.

Program:

Christmas Day was celebrated on 22.12.2024 with the elderly residents of Annalaranalayam Old Age Home and the Service Home situated opposite SASTRA University, Vallam. The celebration commenced with a soulful prayer song rendered by a first-year pre-service teacher, setting a reverent and festive tone for the programme. Mrs. Manjula, Managing Trustee of Annalaranalayam Old Age Home, delivered an inspiring presidential address, graciously acknowledging the presence of the dignitaries and underscoring the vital role of community support. She eloquently reiterated the mission of Annalaranalayam in offering care, protection, and dignity to homeless and destitute elderly persons, ensuring their holistic well-being.

Rev. Sr. Jesi Chandra, Superior of Bon Secours College Convent, Thanjavur, honoured the Chief Guest and imparted her blessings, emphasizing the noble values of service, humanity, and social responsibility. Rev. Sr. Sandanamary further elevated the occasion with her gracious presence and heartfelt words of blessing. Vibrant cultural performances by the pre-service teachers infused the celebration with colour, joy, and enthusiasm, creating moments of delight for the elderly residents. The entire programme radiated a spirit of love, compassion, and togetherness, making the Christmas celebration a deeply memorable and meaningful experience for all.

As a gesture of love and profound respect, mementoes were graciously presented to the residents, honouring their presence and dignity. To support their daily needs, a 1000-litre water tank and essential groceries were generously donated, significantly enhancing the living facilities of the home. Further demonstrating a spirit of compassion, a sum of Rs. 3,500/- was contributed by the pre-service teachers and a professor for the welfare of the elderly residents. A special lunch was thoughtfully arranged and served by the pre-service teachers, embodying the values of care, service, and solidarity.

Cakes were distributed, and vibrant cultural programmes were conducted to create a joyful, festive, and engaging ambience for the inmates. The residents participated wholeheartedly and expressed their heartfelt happiness and appreciation for the celebrations. The celebration culminated on an uplifting and joyful note, fostering unity and radiating the true spirit and message of Christmas among all present. The events were deeply memorable and impactful, beautifully reflecting the institution's enduring commitment to values, social responsibility, and human dignity

Following the outreach activity, the Christmas Celebration 2025 was held at Bon Secours College of Education, Thanjavur, on 23.12.2025 at 10.00 a.m. in the Conference Hall. The celebration was organized by the Management, Principal, Staff, and pre-service teachers, creating a solemn yet joyful festive atmosphere. The programme begun with a soulful prayer and Bible reading led by the pre-service teachers, after which Mrs. S. Victoria, Assistant Professor, warmly welcoming the gathering. Dr. K. A. Antony Samy, Principal, delivered presidential address, emphasizing the spirit of love, compassion, and generosity, and highlighting respect and obedience towards parents as essential virtues that shape one's character.

Rev. Sr. Jesi Chandra, Superior, Bon Secours College Convent, Thanjavur, graced the occasion as Chief Guest and offered her blessed the all followed by Rev. Sr. Sandana Mary, who also shared heartfelt words of blessing. A beautiful skit depicting the nativity of Jesus Christ, interspersed with melodious carols sung by the choir, enriched the devotional ambience of the celebration. The event concluded with cheerful Christmas greetings as the pre-service teachers danced to the tunes of "Jingle Bells" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas," and the dazzling entry of Santa Claus added to their joy and excitement. The celebration ended with a vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. S. Usha, Assistant Professor in Mathematics.

The college premises were beautifully decorated with Christmas trees and twinkling lights, and pre-service teachers and professors exchanged small gifts with the "Christmas Child," prayerfully remembering the significance of the special prayer offered. At the end, a piece of cake and a calendar were distributed to every pre-service teacher on behalf of the Management, which also graciously honoured the professors with small gifts and refreshments.

The Christmas celebration was a resounding success, embodying the spirit of joy, sharing, and togetherness, reinforcing positive values, and making it a cherished part of the college's cultural calendar.

Beneficiaries: 50 old age people of the home.
