Objective: This programme was organized by to spread lot of love and gift sharing about the christmas celebration among old age people.

Program:

Christmas day was celebrated on 22.12.2023. Annalaranalayam old age people and service home Sastra College opposite at Vallam. The program started with prayer song sung by First year pre-service teacher. Mrs. Manjula, the Managing Trustee of Annalaranalayam Old Age Home, delivered a warm and inspiring presidential address. She highlighted the importance of community support and expressed gratitude for the presence of the distinguished guests. she emphasized the mission of Annalaranalayam providing care and support to the homeless elderly peoples, and destitute ensuring their well-being .

Dr. K.A. Antony Samy, Principal delivered an Christmas message, emphasizing the spirit of love, compassion, and generosity during the festive season. His message encouraged everyone present to spread joy and happiness by extending a helping hand to those in need. Rev.Sr. Sandana Mary graced the occasion with her divine presence and shared heartfelt words of blessings.

As part of the event, generous donations were made to support the residents of Annalaranalayam Old age Home. We offer the following dresses, groceries, and food items to the old age home. The act of giving reflects the community's commitment to supporting the less fortunate and creating a positive impact. Cultural events, including music enacting the history of birth of jesus and dance performances, added a festive and joyous atmosphere to the celebration. The celebration was a resounding success, fostering a sense of community, compassion, and joy among the residents of Annalaranalayam old age home.

Beneficiaries: 50 old age people of the home.
