Constitution day celebration

DATE : 26.11.2025

Constitution Day was observed at Bon Secours College of Education with great respect and patriotic spirit. The programme commenced promptly at 11:00 a.m. with the administration of the Constitution Pledge in the assembly area, where all management members, faculty, and student teachers gathered to reaffirm their commitment to unity, equality, and national integrity. At 11:30 a.m. in the conference hall of Bon Secours College of Education, a short Constitution Day remembrance was held to honor the adoption of the Indian Constitution and to acknowledge the contributions of Dr.B.R.Ambedkar and the members of the Constituent Assembly.

The programme began formally with the welcome address delivered by Ms. Ayisha Farhana, a first-year pre-service teacher, followed by Tamil Thai Valthu. The Chief guest, Mrs. Sheela, Advocate, District Court, Thanjavur, was then honored by Dr.K.A.Antonysamy, Principal followed by which he delivered a short keynote address.

The highlight of the programme was the address delivered by the Chief Guest, Mrs.I.Sheela, Advocate who spoke about the importance of the day and emphasised the duties and responsibilities of teachers in shaping informed, responsible, and democratic citizens. She also elaborated on the laws related to women, emphasizing the importance of awareness, empowerment, safety, and constitutional protection for women in society. Her insightful speech inspired the student teachers to uphold equality, dignity, and justice in both their professional and personal spheres.

The Faculty members and the Pre-service teachers participated enthusiastically, reflecting on the relevance of constitutional values in everyday life. The observance helped deepen understanding of rights, duties, and democratic ideals and strengthened the commitment toward responsible citizenship and gender sensitivity. Ms.Akila, a First year pre-service teacher, concluded the programme with a brief note of gratitude, upholding the spirit of the Constitution.
